News 2018 digest:

More than 2,300 migrant babies and toddlers kept alone in US shelters

Since the administration began its zero tolerance policy in early May, children have been separated from their families at the US-Mexico border. Decades after the nation ended the use of orphanages, the administration has set up three, soon to be four, 'tender age' shelters.

Supreme Court: gerrymandering arguments must prove harm to voters

The high court overturned a Wisconsin ruling, and issued two largely procedural decisions on Monday, disappointing Democrats. The Supreme Court will decide whether to hear two North Carolina cases in June. Both states are important swing states.

Trump announces plans for a new military branch: 'Space Force'

'Space Force' would aim to ensure American supremacy in space, although its development may be beyond the president's control. 'The essence of the American character is to explore new horizons and to tame new frontiers,' President Trump said.

Family separation: Evangelicals add their voices to opposition

For many white Evangelicals, the administration's zero-tolerance approach to asylum-seekers is putting their support for President Trump in conflict with their reverence for the sanctity of families.
