News 2018 digest:

Discharged veterans work to end employment discrimination

For veterans who receive less-than-honorable discharges from the military, finding a job can be a major challenge. But a group of advocates have begun to push state and federal governments to prevent employers from considering discharge status in hiring.

North Korea tries to keep open possibility of talks with US

The North's seemingly conciliatory tone could be driven by a need to use the summit to ease international sanctions, or by a determination that a summit with President Trump is the best opportunity the North has to elevate itself and its nuclear program.

Taking the Hill: Why more veterans are running for Congress

A wave of vets-turned-candidates are vowing to temper the culture of tribalism with a greater spirit of bipartisanship.

Van Hollen eyes 'blue wave' hopes, but midterm map is tough for Democrats

In an Ohio town, fostering community over cream puffs

Moving cross-country to a tiny rural town to open a new bakery may not seem like a recipe for success. But the search for a close-knit community and a less expensive, simpler life led one family to give it a try.
