News 2018 digest:

AP test debate: How much world history should high-schoolers know?

The College Board announced recently that the Advanced Placement World History test will now start with the year AD 1450, excluding most history before European imperialism.

Democrats scramble to find clear strategy against Trump's immigration policy

Democrats have developed a 'kitchen-sink' strategy to both energize their base for the fall's midterm elections and fight against the Trump administration's immigration policy on separating families at the US-Mexico border.

Poll: Most Americans approve of Trump's handling of North Korea

The majority approval shows a sway in public opinion after the US-North Korea summit, according to

The Associated Press-NORC Center for Public Affairs Research. It is President Trump's highest approval rating on a single issue on an AP-NORC poll since his inauguration.

Next hurdle at the border: how to reunite children with families

Organizations like the Texas Civil Rights Project have been working to collect information on undocumented children at the US-Mexico border before their parents are sent to jail or an immigration detention center for entering the country illegally. But civil rights groups say it's proving difficult to keep children and parents in contact.

Trump flip on family separation underscores 'chaos' in immigration reform

The issue of immigration surfaces sharp political divides. But dismay over the handling of children at the US-Mexican border has disrupted the usual party lines.

US exits UN rights body: Principled, or another retreat?

Under President Trump, the US has backed away from global institutions and agreements. Now its exit from the Human Rights Council, critics say, has deprived the group of a voice for needed reforms.

In wave of new cities, promise and pitfalls for black middle class

Often newly formed cities are largely white and more affluent than the surrounding county. Stonecrest, near Atlanta, is part of a countertrend, as communities of color aspire to shape their own destiny.

More than 2,300 migrant babies and toddlers kept alone in US shelters

Since the administration began its zero tolerance policy in early May, children have been separated from their families at the US-Mexico border. Decades after the nation ended the use of orphanages, the administration has set up three, soon to be four, 'tender age' shelters.

Supreme Court: gerrymandering arguments must prove harm to voters

The high court overturned a Wisconsin ruling, and issued two largely procedural decisions on Monday, disappointing Democrats. The Supreme Court will decide whether to hear two North Carolina cases in June. Both states are important swing states.

Trump announces plans for a new military branch: 'Space Force'

'Space Force' would aim to ensure American supremacy in space, although its development may be beyond the president's control. 'The essence of the American character is to explore new horizons and to tame new frontiers,' President Trump said.
