News 2018 digest:

Should slavery ties mean renaming of iconic Boston building?

Activists say Faneuil Hall, an American Revolution-era building, should be renamed because its namesake was a slave owner. Others, including the city's mayor, argue that the name should remain, and that the city should acknowledge its history and not try to erase it.

GOP leaders split over 'compromise' immigration bill

The draft legislation includes a path to citizenship for an estimated 1.8 million young immigrants in the US illegally, ranking GOP supporters of President Trump. The plan also includes $25 billion for a border wall and a provision to keep families together as long as they are in the custody of the Homeland Security Department.

Indiana schools take lead on safety after gun violence

In the aftermath of recent school shootings in the United States, including one at a middle school in an Indianapolis suburb, community and school officials in Indiana are seeking funds to bolster safety programs to prevent another tragedy.

Inspector general on Comey: dissecting an error in judgment

The former FBI director violated policies and procedures when he commented publicly about the revived Clinton investigation, the Justice Department inspector general concluded.

Paul Manafort goes to jail: Three questions

Trump's former campaign manager saw his house arrest revoked Friday after being accused of witness tampering. How much trouble is he in, and what could his jailing mean for the president?

California sees $9 billion surplus, passes budget to help poor

The budget both stores some of the state's windfall in its rainy day fund, and increases spending on assistance for people living in poverty as well as programs combatting homelessness. The surplus is the state's largest since at least 2000.
